STEWART, NEWLANDS AND WREN.

Senator Stewart, Hon. Francis G. Newlands and Hon. Thos. Wren addressed a large audience last night at Elko. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed. All three speeches were punctuated from beginning to end with cheers and wild demonstrations of approval. Senator Stewart will return and address the citizens of Washoe tonight and at Verdi tomorrow night. On Monday night he will skin the gold bug combine at Carson. Mr. Newlands and Mr. Wren will continue the campaign in Eastern Nevada, and will go to Tuscarora from Elko.—Silver State.

WHERE IS JONES?

When Jones, the great champion of silver in Congress, was running the last time for the Senate, Stewart was speaking in his behalf on every stump.

Stewart is now fighting for the white metal in Nevada, and is beset by the yelping wolves of the Administration. Where is Jones? His voice should now be ringing out his clarion blast for Stewart, Newlands and the silver ticket.

What's the matter with Bill Stewart? The Enterprise accuses him of the pipp for daring to cast the party lines when the interests of Nevada were at stake. He has on repeated occasions taken bills from the hands of the Senate Finance Committee, and sent them whirling to the House of Representatives, where the gentlemanly Bartine could not even get a move on him. There a free coinage bill sleeps, to be awakened by the eloquence and masterly logic of Francis G. Newlands, who will truly represent Nevada in the Congress of the United States for the next term. Oh! Senator Stewart, thou faithful friend of Nevada, may your shadow ne'er grow less.—Walker Lake Bulletin.

Winters Jockeys for Place.

Theodore Winters, the man who blew out the gas in the International Hotel two years ago and in spite of spending $40,000 to be Governor, was beaten, has come out in a letter accepting a place on the Democratic ticket as elector. He paints Grover Cleveland as the true and tried friend of Nevada and while quoting Andrew Jackson deprecates third party movements, forgetting that Andrew Jackson was one of those very cranks who headed a third party movement years ago and won.

The Tribune calls it the "Sam Davis party." Whatever the party may be named the people of Ormsby can be assured that there will be no known petit larceny thieves submitted to the consideration of the voters on the Silver Party county ticket.

There was a lot of queer work on the track yesterday and some of the jobbers ought to be severely dealt with by the Association.

The short ends were making a loud kick yesterday when pools were declared off.

Clarence Sharon has sold the stallion Farmer Boy to Tom Rickey. It is a 3-year-old, weighs 1600, and is 16 hands high. It is about as fine a general purpose animal as ever seen in this section. It is sired by Black Prince out of Eliza Williams, a big Morgan mare by Winchester.

Lost—A black beaded shoulder cape, between Nevers ranch and the race track. The finder will please leave the same at this office.

There will be services at the M. E. Church on Sunday at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. All seats free. Henry Pearce Pastor.

A colored gentleman named Cooper easily defeated Young Murphy of Genoa yesterday in a 100-yard foot race.

The silver-haired Senator, who has served Nevada so well, will speak at the Carson Opera House next Monday evening, Oct. 3rd. No one should miss hearing Senator Stewart on this occasion.
